

facetious allusion
being first tiger on
p. 56. I am the individual hinted at as the "inexperienced" but
"keen" sportsman - I was prevailed on to write a more or less version of the incident to a local journal, & send you a cutting from it. This is the true story - which you can read & then destroy. Many thanks

FALCON HOUSE,
BLAIRGOWRIE,
N.B.

8/12/90

Dear Sir Joseph.

Many thanks for sending me your precious copy of "The Royal Tiger of Bengal" - my reason for asking for a perusal is that I had heard that you
were reference to me in it. This I find to be the case, in that

haps. that now you know the real actor in the scrimmage, you may think it worth reading.
Kind regards to best friends.
I hope the book will return to you as safely -

Yours sincerely
H. M. L.